The International Conference on
NUCLEAR STRUCTURE AND RELATED TOPICS
Dubna, July 14-18, 2015

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Bogoliubov Laboratory of Theoretical Physics at the Joint Institute for Nuclear Research organizes the International Conference “Nuclear Structure and Related Topics” (NSRT15) dedicated to the 90th anniversary of Prof. V.G. Soloviev (1925-1998). The Conference will be held at Dubna, Moscow Region, Russia, on July 14-18, 2015.

The Conference program will cover new experimental and theoretical developments in studies of nuclear structure phenomena from stable nuclei to borders of stability.

The main topics include: nuclear structure far from stability; collective phenomena and giant resonances; spin- and isospin modes; production and properties of heaviest nuclei; nuclear reaction dynamics; sub- and near-barrier nucleus-nucleus collisions; nuclear astrophysics.
