ABSTRACTS AND PROCEEDINGS

A deadline to submit abstracts is April 15, 2018. The templates in .tex and .doc formats are available on the conference website. The Booklet of abstracts submitted to the Organizing Committee will be distributed to all participants during the conference registration.

The conference proceedings will be published on-line in the open-access journal EPJ Web of Conferences (www.epj-conferences.org), a service connected to the well-known European Physical Journal. The Word and LaTeX templates of the journal (two-column variant) as well as the license agreement will be send to participants whose contributions were selected for presentations before the Conference. All these files can be downloaded from the website (www.epj-conferences.org) of the journal as well. The page limit is 6 pages. The following set of the manuscript files should be delivered by the author to the Organizing Committee: the print-ready PDF-file, the corresponding source file (Microsoft Word or LaTeX2e); the separate eps-files of figures; the signed license agreement. The deadline for submission of all these materials to nsrt18@theor.jinr.ru is September 15, 2018.

CONTRIBUTIONS

The Conference program will include about 60 invited and oral talks covering different aspects of the theory and experimental studies of nuclear structure, nuclear reactions, etc. The preliminary Conference program will be available soon after April 15 at the Conference website <http://theor.jinr.ru/~nsrt18/>.

The following software will be available on the conference laptop: Adobe Reader (for PDF presentations) and MS PowerPoint (for PPT and PPTX presentations).

GETTING TO BURGAS

There is a number of companies organize the seasonal flights to Burgas: Bulgaria Air, Wizz, S7, Royal Air, Aeroflot, Sun Express, Thomas Cook Airlines. The transportation from the Burgas Airport to the Hotel can be ordered on a website of the conference. The price is 30 Euro per person. In the case of group it is possible to use common transfer from airport. In that case the transfer will be cheaper.
